FRONTAGE TAX MEETING. NOTICE.

At the request of the Oahu Central Improvement Committee, Mayor Fern has called a public meeting, to be held in the makai pavilion of the Young Hotel on Wednesday evening, May 21, at 7:30 o'clock.

The Frontage Tax Laws will be discussed and recommendations made to the board of supervisors for a policy to be adopted by them in carrying out the construction of highways under these laws.

It is hoped that there will be a large attendance of all interested. GEORGE G. GUILD, Secretary, Oahu Central Improvement Committee. May 25, 1914. 5865-21.

NOTICE.

As I am retiring as sheriff of the City and County of Honolulu on the 31st day of May, 1914, I give notice that all commissions issued by me throughout the City and County of Honolulu will be cancelled as of that date and the same must be returned to me not later than May 31st.

W. P. JARRETT, Sheriff, City and County of Honolulu. 5864-61.

The first women's church in England has just been opened at Waikeke, Cheshire. "The Church of the New Idea," as it is called, originated in a discussion among a few women who felt that the present churches do not provide for their requirements in spiritual matters. The new church is officered entirely by women, and only women preachers will occupy the pulpit. The afternoon services will be limited to women, but the evening ones will be open to men.—Indianapolis News.

Hard water should not be used on the face. If living where soft water cannot be obtained add a pinch of borax or a handful of oat or almond meal to the wash water.
